

Press release

MM & K, a leading independent consultancy specialising in the planning, design and implementation of pay and reward strategies, today announces that, as of 1 March 2011, its trading division The Share Option Centre will be renamed MM & K Share Plan Administration.

“The new name reflects MM & K Share Plan Administration’s ability to provide a full range of share plan administration services for our clients, from discretionary plans to all employee Share Incentive Plan,” said Ian Murphie, Share Plans Director.

“It also highlights our role within the MM & K family. Our share plan administrators work closely with share plan consultants, accountants, and legal professionals, giving them a unique level of access to expert advice and support.”
